

Law Centre for Health and Life

Update September 2024

Corrette Ploem in de Volkskrant over de autonomie van zwangeren

Op 18 september 2024 publiceerde de Volkskrant een opiniestuk geschreven door Corrette Ploem en gynaecoloog Christianne de Groot. Het opiniestuk bekritiseert recente juridische ontwikkelingen waarbij de autonomie van zwangere vrouwen wordt ondermijnd ten behoeve van de bescherming van het ongeboren kind.

Lees hier meer →

Law Centre for Health and Life at UACES 2024 Conference

From 1-4 September 2024, the UACES (University Association for Contemporary European Studies) Conference took place in Trento, Italy. Katrina Pehudoff, Pramiti Parwani, and Majd Alshoufi made contributions to the discussions through their insightful presentations.

Read more here →

Alec Cali talks at the European Sociological Association's 2024 Conference

On Thursday, 29 August, Alec Cali presented their research at the European Sociological Association's 2024 Conference in Porto, Portugal. Their study examines the impact of health crises on public trust in health systems and the implications for medical decision-making.

Read more here →

Recent Publications

Solidarity and trust in European Union health governance: three ways forward

Anniek de Ruijter, Barbara Prainsack and Tamara Hervey recently published an article in The Lancet Region Health, titled "Solidarity and trust in European Union health governance: three ways forward."

Read more →

The EU Artificial Intelligence Act (2024): Implications for healthcare

Hannah van Kolschoten and Janneke van Oirschot recently published a paper in Health Policy on "The EU Artificial Intelligence Act (2024): Implications for healthcare".

Read more →

Het sociaal domein als onderdeel van een mensgericht bestuursrecht?

Bastiaan Wallage schreef samen met Rogier C. Simons, een bijdrage voor de Tilburg Law Review (TiLR) over "Het sociaal domein als onderdeel van een mensgericht bestuursrecht?".

Lees hier meer →

Promising for patients or deeply disturbing? The ethical and legal aspects of deepfake therapy

Corrette Ploem together with Saar Hoek, Suzanne Metselaar, and Marieke Bak, recently published an article in the Journal of Medical Ethics, on "Promising for patients or deeply disturbing? The ethical and legal aspects of deepfake therapy".

Read more →

Upcoming events

| | |
|-----------|--|
| oct 10 | International organisations shaping access to medicines in developing economies University of Amsterdam, REC, A3.01, 13:00-15:30 |
| oct 12 | Alumniweek: Het zelfverkozen levenseinde en euthanasie - de mensenrechtelijke aspecten Universiteit van Amsterdam, REC, 16:00-17:00 |
| oct 18 | Artificial Intelligence and Data Protection, a view from the European Data Protection Supervisor University of Amsterdam, REC, A5.24, 15:30-16:45 |
| nov | We are organizing a seminar with Dr. Sridhar Venkatapuram in November on the topic of global health justice and capabilities. More information will follow soon! |

The Law Center for Health and Life generates knowledge at the intersection of law, health, and the living environment. The Centre is led by director Anniek de Ruijter, together with co-directors Johan Legemaate and Katrina Pehudoff.

Read more on our website about the Centre in English or in Dutch.

Unsubscribe